

TRAVELbear

TOURS WITH PASSION THROUGH EUROPE

BUDAPEST

FOR INDIVIDUAL TRAVELLERS

Short stay Budapest

This package explores the major sights when you don't have time to stay longer.

- Day 1: Arrival at Budapest airport or train station, transfer to centrally located hotel, dinner in local restaurant with typical Hungarian food (3 courses, water, coffee).
- Day 2: Budapest city tour to discover the city's most important sights on both sides of the River Danube: Széchenyi Chain Bridge, Castle Hill with Matthias Church and Fishermen's Bastion, Gellért Hill (the best panoramic view), the Great Synagogue, Heroes' Square, Andrásy Út, the State Opera House, Basilica of St. Stephen. Most of the tour is done by coach, but there are also walking sections.
- Day 3: Parliament tour (not possible on Mondays and holidays) The Hungarian Parliament is the third largest parliament building in the world. During this tour, you see the ornately decorated staircase, the dome hall, where the Hungarian crown jewels and the Hungarian Holy Crown can be seen. The last room which will be visited is the plenary hall.
- Day 4: transfer to airport or train station

package includes: transfer airport or train station to hotel and back, 3 nights accommodation with daily breakfast, dinner on arrival day, sightseeing as indicated, entrance ticket to Parliament, detailed travel manual

package with * accommodation: from EUR 275,--

package with  accommodation: from EUR 315,--

package with  accommodation: from EUR 410,--
prices are based on twin share in low season

Long stay Budapest

For those who want to gain a deeper insight into the culture of Budapest and the surrounding region.

- Day 1: arrival at Budapest airport or train station, transfer to centrally located hotel, dinner in local restaurant with typical Hungarian food (3 courses, water, coffee).

- Day 2: Budapest city tour to discover the city's most important sights on both sides of the River Danube: Széchenyi Chain Bridge, Castle Hill with Matthias Church and Fishermen's Bastion, Gellért Hill (the best panoramic view), the Great Synagogue, Heroes' Square, Andrásy Út, the State Opera House, Basilica of St. Stephen. Most of the tour is done by coach, but there are also walking sections.
- Day 3: Half-day tour to Gödöllő Castle (only on Mondays and Wednesdays) to visit the former summer palace of the beautiful Queen/Empress Sisi.
- Day 4: Parliament tour (not possible on Mondays and holidays) The Hungarian Parliament is the third largest parliament building in the world. During this tour, you see the ornately decorated staircase, the dome hall, where the Hungarian crown jewels and the Hungarian Holy Crown can be seen. The last room which will be visited is the plenary hall.
- Day 5: Tour along the Danube to visit the three exciting cities Visegrád (the ruins of the former royal residence), Esztergom (the largest cathedral in Hungary) and Szentendre (a beautiful artist's village with narrow streets and romantic corners). During the summer months (May to September) you will return to Budapest by boat.
- Day 6: transfer to airport or train station

package includes: transfer airport or train station to hotel and back, 5 nights accommodation with daily breakfast, dinner on arrival day, sightseeing as indicated, entrance ticket to Parliament, detailed travel manual

package with * accommodation: from EUR 460,--

package with  accommodation: from EUR 525,--

package with  accommodation: from EUR 690,--
prices are based on twin share in low season

These packages are only examples and can also be adapted to your special interests e.g. if you are a lover of classical music, a food and wine connoisseur, a museum fanatic,